Exploring Dr. Elvin Holt's Library Collection

Saturday, March 30
10:00 AM – 1:00 PM

Cephas House
217 W. Martin Luther King Dr.
San Marcos, TX 78666

Dr. Elvin Holt was a professor in the Department of English, the first tenured African American at Texas State University, and the longest serving President and Board member of the Calaboose African American History Museum, embodied the essence of academic excellence and community leadership.

Dr. Holt's knowledge of African American history and literature was matched by his unwavering commitment to service. His legacy continues to shape the mission and vision at the Calaboose African American History Museum. We are honored to carry forward his enduring commitment to education, empowerment, and social justice.

This exhibition highlights Dr. Holt's vast collection of books, recently bestowed upon the Calaboose Museum, alongside cherished photos and memorabilia from his personal archive. Join us to honor Dr. Holt's legacy and celebrate his remarkable contributions to the San Marcos Community. Your presence is greatly valued as we acknowledge his profound impact.
